April 4

‘April 4, 2018 is the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr’s murder and the 51st anniversary of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s speech Beyond Vietnam: A Time to Break Silence. This anniversary of his death, we are confronted with how far we have to go in fulfilling his legacy. We urge folks to Join the Poor People’s Campaign, if you have not already. This day also marks an opportunity to honor Dr. King by remembering and reading "Beyond Vietnam", an incredibly important speech given just a year before his death.’

Eleven Democratic members of Congress just returned from a trip to Israel this week. Led by Rep. Nancy Pelosi, and including progressives Jan Schakowsky and Jamie Raskin, the Congressional delegation smiled for a photo shoot with Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu while the state’s army was preparing its plan to attack the protesters. Tell these members of Congress they now have an obligation to speak out against Israel’s deadly attack on peaceful protesters in Gaza.

from RT: ‘The Israel Defense Forces (IDF) has used tear gas-deploying drones to disperse huge crowds of Palestinian protesters along the Israel-Gaza border area Friday.’

“Roughly $133 million is expected to be made available to tribes to support Alaska Native and Native American crime victims who advocates say had been largely left out of a federal funding program for decades.” Read the AP article at newsminer.com 3-30-18.

Fairbanks Housing & Homeless Coalition Updates:

“-- Rapid Re-Housing (RRH): The Fairbanks Symposium on Homelessness was designed to be an action mtg and the most important accomplishment: the community is now well into the planning process for a Rapid Re-Housing (RRH) program... open to any individual or family in need. Now we have 11 agencies actively supporting the idea... the Fairbanks Rescue Mission [will] be the host agency...

-- Fairbanks Symposium on Homelessness II: The symposium was a bigger success than we realized at the time - “enormous turnout” - and we should seriously consider doing another one.

-- Tea Outreach: ... On April 11th Eloy is teaming up with Fairbanks Native Association Community Services to pass out tea downtown.

-- Reentry Coalition Coordinator: Chris McLain...has been instrumental in the Reentry Coalition’s amazing successes, but Chris is preparing to step away from the position to dedicate more time to his rural community justice initiatives. Chris has prepared continuity books and even offered to volunteer his time to help get the next coordinator on the right track...

email Interior Alaska Center for Non-Violent Living: IAC@iacmanl.org

-- Fairbanks Regional Public Health Center / Fairbanks Rescue Mission: public health nurses... routinely provide services at the Fairbanks Rescue Mission and at various encampments around town. During this mtg Leslie announced that a local nurse practitioner would now be offering services at the Mission once a month. This will be a tremendous benefit to the community.

-- Northern Hope Center a mental health drop-in center for adults 18 & older, with serious mental illness, who have a genuine need of relief from isolation & an opportunity to socialize with their peers. [A] tremendous resource for the community if you haven’t been there (Suite 103, 909 Cushman) you should visit sometime to learn more. See the flyer.

-- Community Wall: The Noel Wien Library is really a hub in the community. The amount of people who use the facility is impressive and Ashton Varner is looking to make the library even more of a local communication hub by developing a Community Center Wall. Fairbanks Youth Advocates and other local agencies have had real success at outreach in the library and Ashton will help other organizations do the same. For more information please contact Ashton by phone at 907-459-1151 or by email at avarner@fnslibrary.us

-- ThrivAlaska Pre-K Recruitment: ... Families who are in the spectrum of homelessness are a top priority.

-- ...With so many events coming up in the near future [we] need an AmeriCorps Summer Associate to assist in outreach efforts..., so if you know of anybody who is interested in summer employment please have them check out this link. Then under Program Name type “Fairbanks”.

-- ...It’s time to develop our 2018 Strategic Plan... If anybody else is interested in participating please let me know...

-- Eloy has ... recruited 14 members for the Outreach Committee. We have some exciting events coming up, so if anybody else would like to join please contact Eloy at eponce@fairbanks.us ...” from <fairbankshomeless@gmail.com>

Another SPOTLIGHT: “The People’s Amendments: An Alaskan’s journey around the U.S. trying to fulfill a centuries old promise of a citizen democracy. Our focus is to eliminate the overwhelming unequal influence of money, and the suffocating grip of the two-party duopoly, on OUR American political system,” was presented by Dave Matheny at last Friday’s Alaska Peace Center monthly potluck. Today’s newscast included some audio of the presentation. Also see http://northview-magazine.com/brief-encounters/dave-matheny-on-the-peoples-amendments/.
Songs can increase our understanding of issues of peace, justice, and sustainability.
Played with today’s newscast (4/1/18):
--Which Way Are You Going? by Jim Croce

This summary of issues of importance to citizens of Interior Alaska, and information on how, when, and where to take action on those issues, has been brought to you by the Alaska Peace Center.

The Alaska Peace Center works for peace, justice, and sustainability-
- individually, in our community, and globally-with a commitment to nonviolent conflict resolution.

We bring in speakers, sponsor exhibits, and encourage dialogue within our community on these issues.
We also maintain an office in conjunction with this radio station, KWRK.
