“Juneteenth, also known as Juneteenth Independence Day or Freedom Day, is an American holiday that commemorates the June 19, 1865, announcement of the abolition of slavery in the U.S. state of Texas, and more generally the emancipation of enslaved African-Americans throughout the former Confederacy of the southern United States. Its name is a portmanteau of "June" and "nineteenth", the date of its celebration. Juneteenth is recognized as a state holiday or special day of observance in forty-five states, including Alaska” more at wikipedia from codepink.org: “Right now there’s a dangerous bill moving through the Senate that would give the President unchecked power for even more wars. The Corker-Kaine bill would give sweeping authorization for the President to go to war around the world with no Congressional oversight. It allows decisions about war to be made in secret. It also flips the power to declare war on its head and forces a supermajority veto to overrule the President. We need to stop this! Join us in sending a message to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that we need an AUMF that stops war, not one that rubberstamps Trump’s belligerent policies.”

from worldbeyodwar.org: “Thank Google employees who reject war.

SIGN THE PETITION.

We the undersigned applaud those employees of Google who resist allowing Google to work in the business of war. We want to express our deep gratitude for your willingness to take this critical stand. The particular new dangers of automated weapons provide one more reason to make mass killing a thing of the past and to move public policies to a world beyond war. We further want to encourage all workers at all companies in all countries, including Google, to expand this effort until it results in a firm commitment to reject all military contracts — until every company meets the demand of Google’s employees to “publicize, and enforce a clear policy stating that neither [this company] nor its contractors will ever build warfare technology.”

As awareness grows, we can expect someone to capture a rolling coal incident on video. Sent to the police, Ft. consideration and approval at their August 2 in-person meeting. The CALT is working toward delivering their climate change recommendations to the Governor in early September.

CALT has formed five policy statement working groups (corresponding to the five main policy statements in the document). Each group is reviewing and revising one of the five policy statements in the draft climate policy, including the related goals and objectives. These five groups will also develop implementation actions for each policy statement, incorporating feedback from public comment and listening sessions.

The CALT has also convened three ad hoc working groups on education and workforce development, communications and outreach, and federal engagement.”

“We’ve long been supporting the local citizens campaign on Kodiak Island to build opposition to the launching of military rockets from their pristine public lands. But the Pentagon’s Missile Defense Agency feels that Kodiak is “out of site, out of mind”. We are determined to make sure that Israel’s testing of these weapons systems does not go un-noticed and without international opposition. Please help us spread the word about this issue by sharing this important video via email and on Facebook using the links above. Help us break through the corporate media silence surrounding this provocative and destabilizing effort by Israel (with full Pentagon support) to control the Middle East and its resources.

*“Ijlil”, by Jonatan Shapira, translated from Hebrew
I was born in the orchards between Gililot and Herzliya
Among the poppies and chrysanthemums when springtime arrived
I was only 12 years old when it all ended
Today I’m 80 years old but the bitterness lingers
So much has happened since, covered up and whitewashed
So many years have passed since then, my God, I still hold the rusty key in my hand
I lived in a house between Gililot and Herzliya
The sun has set long ago but morning never came

Today there is a dumpster site in the cinema city
The smell at the end of the parking lot isn’t pleasant
And among the prickles as a lily among thorns
Stands my old hovel beside a wastewater plant
And who among these movie goers actually knows what used to be here?
That during the winter nights when it all still existed
I could just lie quietly and hear the ocean

I was born in the orchards between Gililot and Herzliya
Beneath the berry bush in Ijlil al-Qibliyya
The hill of my childhood love has since become a monument
Of innocence, dreams, destruction and the hope
That I could one day return to it at least for a visit
Oh, Mother, how I love you, oh, how it stings
Beneath the lawns of Manshia
My soul is still aflutter
Next year in Jerusalem and Ijlil al-Qibliyya

They will return
