Good News category:

From Nonviolence News: “After worker walkouts, Walmart stopped selling ammunition for assault weapons. San Francisco officials called the National Rifle Association a domestic terrorist organization. And, after Texas loosened its gun laws despite recent mass shootings, tourists have launched a Texas boycott.”

Ongoing Campaigns, Recent Past Events, Issues not specific to Alaska, and/or without specific date

Peace  Justice  Sustainability

“Now is the Time for Congress to Act on Gun Violence - The U.S. House Judiciary Committee will consider three pieces of legislation that respond to the growing problem of gun violence when they return [to D.C.] this week...

- H.R. 1186, the Keep Americans Safe Act, would ban high capacity ammunition magazines.
- H.R. 1236, the Extreme Risk Protection Order Act of 2019 (amended to include provisions from H.R. 3076, the Federal Extreme Risk Protection Order Act), provides incentives through grants for states to adopt laws providing for Extreme Risk Protection Orders to prevent those deemed a risk to themselves or others from accessing firearms and establishes a procedure for obtaining Extreme Risk Protection Orders in federal court.
- H.R. 2708, the Disarm Hate Act, which includes those convicted of misdemeanor hate crimes in the list of categories of individuals who are prohibited from possessing firearms, and who would be prohibited from doing so through background checks.

Together with H.R. 8, these three pieces of legislation can put our country on a path of ending gun violence. Please call or email your Representative today and tell them to continue to prioritize saving lives from gun violence by supporting these three bills.” from League of Women Voters

“Shell shock: Traumatic brain injury in the military - Almost 400,000 active duty military personnel have been diagnosed with traumatic brain injury. Often hard to diagnose, due to being an “invisible injury,” veterans suffer longer term consequences from TBI like higher rates of Parkinson’s disease and dementia...” by P.Pemberton, Alaska Public Media, 9/6/19.
“The U.S. Should Reconsider Its Misguided Shadow War in Somalia - Few Americans are aware that the U.S. is conducting a shadow war in Somalia, evidenced by a rising number of drone strikes and combat operations against a group, Al-Shabaab, that Washington labels terrorists. A new Costs of War report released today looks at the past four decades of U.S. military involvement in Somalia and concludes that as long as military policy in that country targets Al-Shabaab with the counterinsurgency tactics of the U.S.-led war on terrorism, neither the U.S. nor Somalia will be any safer... Spotlights

“Historically High Pentagon Spending Creates a Hollow Force”

The national debt now tops $22.5 trillion. But we spend nearly $220 billion more, adjusted for inflation, on the military today to support a force of just over 2 million—an expected $989 billion in fiscal year 2020 when all defense-related spending is calculated—than we did at the height of World War II when we had more than 12 million troops fighting around the globe.” Read the article by D. Grazier of the Center for Defense Information at the above link.

“F-35: The Most Expensive Weapons Program in History”

The F-35 program serves as the ideal case study to understand the Military-Industrial-Congressional Complex. The program encapsulates all the problems with the business of purchasing weapons in the United States. The F-35 has a needlessly complicated design that makes it expensive and difficult to operate and maintain. While this design makes it less effective in combat, it does facilitate subcontracts all over the country for no purpose other than shoring up political support. The sheer size of the program provides many opportunities for officials involved in the program to travel through the revolving door between government and industry.

and investigation by D. Grazier: “F-35 Test Fleet Struggling with Low Readiness Rates”

“The Project On Government Oversight (POGO) is a nonpartisan independent watchdog that investigates and exposes waste, corruption, abuse of power, and when the government fails to serve the public or silences those who report wrongdoing.

We champion reforms to achieve a more effective, ethical, and accountable federal government that safeguards constitutional principles...

[O]ur small organization brought to light wasteful Pentagon spending, such as $7,600 coffee pots and $435 hammers. Then we began shining the light on the ineffectiveness of larger weapons systems such as the 1982 M1 Abrams tank—about which the Pentagon falsified testing reports and put soldiers at risk...”

Hello this is Rob Mulford the Asymmetric Moose with picks for the week of September 8, 2019. This past Thursday’s Fairbanks Daily News-Miner’s headline shouted, “Alaska loses $102M to fund border wall.” A sub headline, attempting to quell a perceived rising of economic fears, I suppose, added, “F-35 deployment untouched by Pentagon cuts, Sen. Sullivan says.” The article went on to describe the Pentagon’s plan to defer $3.6B in funding slated for over one hundred planned DoD construction projects, several of them here in Alaska.

In an email to the News-Miner Senator Sullivan cast blame on congressional Democrats saying, “[I]t should be noted that the Democrats’ obstruction to fund much needed border security has forced the Trump Administration to undertake these measures”. Poor helpless POTUS; stymied by the “Democrats” murky opposition to the “wall”, in his patriotic endeavors to Make America Hate Again, Trump just had no choice, OMG.

One can almost feel the sighs of relief, though, breathed by Republicans and Democrats alike with the saving of the sacred F-35s. And, we’ll likely see donkeys and elephants standing shoulder-to-shoulder congratulating each other when those Nuclear Weapons endowed birds of prey arrive. I’ll be protesting them again, again alone if I must.

But the F-35s are about economic development, right? But so is war, and so is the so-called immigration crisis, NAFTA fallout anyone?

I’ll let Eugene Victor Debs speak to the subject of that particular form economic development. Next Howard Zinn introduces actor Tim Robbins delivering the speech that got Debs sentenced to ten years in prison.

“It was hard to have forgiveness for the things they did that day. And our president decided we should make their people pay. So we dropped on Nagasaki and we cut them down to size. And the one we dropped on Hiroshima left them vaporized. And I heard some Christians say, “What would Jesus do? What if you were on the wrong side; would he point the gun at you? And, they read through every word of Matthew, Mark and Luke and John; So they could see if killing was the side that Christ was on.” Next singer songwriter Griffin House sings I Remember.

“The road is hard and the water is wide. Fly high in your dreams. Tonight we sleep under the light of the moon, and I Love You.” Radney Foster sings Dulces Sueños, Godspeed, a prayer for children at the border.

“What good is love and peace on earth, When it's exclusive? Where's the truth in the written word, If no one reads it? A new day dawning, comes without warning, so don't blink twice. What part of history we learned, when it's repeated? Some things will never overcome, if we don't seek it. The world stops turning, Paradise burning, so don't think twice.” Next, Green Day sings Troubled Times.”
