Fire Drill Fridays Teach-In: War and the Military. “Just one percent” of the 2019 military budget of $716 billion would be enough to fund 128,879 green infrastructure jobs instead, and it would take just 11 percent -- or $80 billion -- to produce enough wind and solar energy to power every household in the United States. To free up billions of Pentagon dollars for investing in critical environmental projects and to eliminate the environmental havoc of war, climate and peace movements must work together to create a world with real security and resilience for all.” #PeopleOverPentagon

Domestic Violence Awareness Month: A call to action,” In a community perspective in the 10-25-19 Fbks Daily NewsMiner, Alaska State Trooper Col. Barry Wilson wrote, “... As a a 30-year veteran of the ...Troopers, I bore witness to countless acts of domestic violence and sexual assault and have seen the long-lasting impacts of the physical and psychological trauma inflicted on victims... Significant advancements in training have occurred over the past 5 years to improve how domestic violence cases are investigated and how children... are interviewed. The Dept. of Public Safety will partner with a school district in a pilot project called Handle with Care... If you are experiencing domestic violence, please visit bit.ly/31GxXmb [for available resources... “BREAKING: Bombshell Net Neutrality Ruling - Ever since the FCC repealed net neutrality, ISPs like Verizon, AT&T and T-Mobile have been throttling traffic "pretty much everywhere all the time." But on October 1st, 2019, a federal court ruled that the FCC’s policy doesn't preempt net neutrality laws at the state and national level. Big cable lobbyists are working overtime to push for bad legislation, but we can stop them. The Save the Internet Act has already passed the House of Representatives with bipartisan support, and now we need the Senate to do the same. Here’s how you can help:

1. Speak out on social media. Here are some suggestions you can use to spread the word. And be sure to share our awesome graphics to get the word out.
2. Tell everyone to text WATCH to 687-88. They can set a reminder to watch the hearing and pressure their members of Congress to pass a clean bill from their smartphone.” Find out more via https://www.battleforthenet.com/

Nanieezh Peter, 15, and junior Quannah Chasing Horse Potts, 17, argued passionately for the nonbinding measure, which calls on AFN to reinstate a task force that would advocate for strong climate policies, develop indigenous voices and declare a state of emergency on climate change.” Anchorage Daily News via Northern AK Environmental Center

“Interior Alaska PFAS Incinerator Shows Promise for Cleaning Toxic Soil
An innovative Interior Alaska incinerator permitted for destroying per- and polyfluoralkyl chemicals (PFAS) is being closely monitored by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) for its success cleaning toxic soil, Fairbanks’ KTUU-TV (sic) reported Tuesday [Oct.8]. The NRC Alaska thermal remediation facility, permitted by the Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC), began operation in March, according to the... Per the Anchorage-based KTUU article: “...Citizen watchdog groups have concerns about the ability of the incinerator to eliminate PFAS and worry it could be a mechanism through which the contaminant becomes airborne. "We haven't seen the official report. We haven't seen the conditions under which the testing was done specifically. We don't know where exactly the soils were collected for the test. Those things may all be in a report, but the ADEC and the EPA are going to have to do a better job at helping the public understand why this isn't a threat to us in any way," Patrice Lee, with the groups Citizens for Clean Air and a WATER (Wake Up Alaskans to the Toxic Environmental Reality), told KTUU...”

from Our Children’s Trust; “...Friday, October 25, 15 young Canadians from across the country ...file[d] a lawsuit against the federal government of Canada for causing and allowing high levels of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and contributing to dangerous climate change... They are taking their federal government to court for violating their constitutional rights to life, liberty, and security of the person under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, and for failing to protect essential public trust resources. The youth plaintiffs also allege that their government’s conduct violates their right to equality, since young people are disproportionately affected by climate change. ..”

Which Green New Deal?

The Green New Deal originally introduced more than a dozen years ago by the Green Party starts out, “Enact an emergency Green New Deal to turn the tide on climate change, revive the economy and make wars for oil obsolete,” and “ includes a major cut in federal spending on the military (including the Pentagon budget as well as expenditures on war, nuclear weapons and other military-related areas), which would free up from roughly $500 billion per year. The $1 trillion in current annual United States military spending is equivalent to the rest of the world’s military budgets combined...”

Bernie Sanders’ version is extensive, emphasizes jobs, and frontline communities, “expanding the climate justice movement, and includes “Scaling back military spending on maintaining global oil dependence.”

The Green New Deal proposed by Rep. Ocasio-Cortez (D-NY-14) addresses social and labor injustices...
