Hello, this is Rob Mulford the Asymmetric Moose with picks for the week of November 17, 2019. This past Thursday I interviewed Medea Benjamin, cofounder of Code Pink – Women for Peace, about her recent arrest. Apparently the ol’ Debbie Wasserman Schultz, the DNC’s defender against the rise of popular democratic socialism, has graduated to assisting rightwing coup d’etats, whose thugs beat up 100lb senior citizen nonviolent peace activists. Oh yea, before the interview we spoke briefly about my comparatively minor action, protesting the Alaska Defense Forum. Receiving kudos from this powerhouse of peace and justice is more than this old moose deserves.

Next David Rovics sings, Behind These Prison Walls, a tune that he recorded outside London’s Belmarsh Prison, where Julian Assange is being held for the crime of exposing the thugs of the war racket.

Next Floyd Red Crow Westerman reminds this settler nation: “For the tribes you terminated, For the myth you keep alive, For the land you confiscated, For our freedom you deprived… Custer died for your sin”

--- readings from Chief Joseph and Peace Pilgrim; Sarah James, Don Ross; from The Way of Peace album
  --All the Fine Young Men sung by DeDanaan
  --Veterans Alan, Karl, Don C. speaking at Armistice Day 2017
  --A Letter to America by Don Ross
  -- No Man’s Land, by Eric Bogul
