<td>North Pole &amp; Fairbanks non-attainment zones: &quot;Stage 2 Air Quality Alerts - Until Mon, Jan.4, 2pm MANDATORY ACTION REQUIRED BY RESIDENTS; All solid fuel-fired devices must cease operation, within three hours of the effective time of alert, unless the exceptions above apply. All WAIVER HOLDERS are still required to meet the 20% visible emission or opacity limit during any air quality episodes/alert. Residents should rely instead on their home’s cleaner source of heat (such as a gas or fuel oil fired furnace or boiler or electric baseboard heaters) until the Stage 2 alert is canceled. ALL OPEN BURNING IS PROHIBITED ADDITIONAL Voluntary Actions: Plug [vehicles] In at 20 degrees or colder, ride the bus, or car pool FORECAST: Clear to partly cloudy skies and the colder temps will support a strengthening inversion through the weekend resulting in poor to very poor dispersion. We are forecasting the air quality to remain Unhealthy for Sensitive Groups with periods of Unhealthy or worse during the alert period, with 24hr average PM$_{2.5}$ values $&gt;30$ug/m$^3$ for 96 hrs.&quot;</td>

<td>Alaska Peace Center monthly mtg - All welcome! Among other activities, help plan the upcoming streaming of the documentary “Free Men”, about the Kenneth Reams story. Kenneth has spent his entire adult life in an Arkansas jail. He started producing art a number of years ago, and has established a non-profit, “Who Decides.” This is a network of artists, activists and volunteers using art to educate society about the practice and history of capital punishment in America. Kenneth is a charismatic speaker and had a conversation with a Fairbanks audience in January of 2019. The Alaska Peace Center and Fairbanks NAACP will offer this documentary to a Fairbanks audience via Zoom. It is intended as a fund-raiser for APC, NAACP, and the “Who Decides” non-profit. Information about Kenneth can be found, along with an opportunity to view the “Free Men” trailer, at https://freekennethreams.org/. A Bold Peace (2016) is about a country with no military. Costa Rica’s 1948 civil war shook the country to its foundations. Out of the ashes, the government reorganized under its decision to abolish the military. Instead of directing the wealth of the small nation into the business of war, there was an intentional effort to create a vital democracy and a wide middle class with free university education and universal health care. Security relationships with other nations through treaties and international alliances were cultivated. Over last seven decades, the Costa Rican model has survived several serious crises, but the current threats may be the most formidable of all. AFPC Quarterly Food Systems Discussion Series: TRANSPORTATION
"We will kick off with a background presentation on food transport state-of-affairs and challenges in the state, followed by an expert panel. The session will end with an active breakout session to gather feedback and thoughts from the greater Alaskan community on the issues presented. Feedback will then be aggregated and distributed to the group after the session has ended."

Thursday, Jan. 14

8-10am
Nonviolent Communication and Anger How often do we hurt ourselves when we express anger unskillfully? When someone expresses explosive emotions violently, both parties get hurt. In a world so badly affected by violence we really don't need more people hurting even more people. The change starts with ourselves. Nonviolent Communication (NVC) can help you with expressing anger in ways that connect us to others and identify solutions that are satisfying to everyone. You can discover the needs behind your anger and find more life-enriching ways of contributing to your community.

"The Alaska minimum wage increased from $10.19 to $10.34 effective Jan. 1, 2021. Voters passed a ballot initiative in 2014 to adjust the minimum wage annually for inflation... By law, Alaska’s minimum wage must remain at least $1 per hour over the federal minimum wage.
"The Alaska minimum wage applies to all hours worked in a pay period, regardless of how the employee is paid — whether by time, piece, commission or otherwise. All actual hours worked in a pay period multiplied by the Alaska minimum wage.

Audio & Songs broadcast with this week’s Community News:

" Hello this is Rob Mulford, the Asymmetric Moose, with picks for the week of January 3rd (first week of), 2021:
This week I’ve chosen the theme Seventeen Days and Counting and Then Beyond)

I met Juneau’s late great singer songwriter Buddy Tabor about fifteen years ago. We hit it off immediately; I was wearing my usual compliment of anti-war regalia and he a pin with a capital W and a large slash drawn through it. First Buddy Tabor sings about a time “When there was corporate ranchers, and crooked politicians, lyin’ lawyers, and dirty sons-a-bitches” : Billy The Kid

Next on the platter is Fairbanks’s own excellent singer songwriter and banjo player par excellence. By the way I’d might add that she taught me how to play that wonderful instrument, although I probably should not publically accused her of so. Robin Dale Ford sings I Can’t See With My Eyes

The next tune takes me back to morning prayer and the peace pipe at Standing Rock. Kate Wolf sings Medicine Wheel

Guy Davis knows what the world needs now: We All Need More Kindness In This World.

Next Winnipeg, Manitoba’s The Duhks sing a tribute to Irish Republican Revolutionary Michael Collins, Who Will Take My Place.

Maybe my last selection will help get us through our 17 days of anticipation. Next The Graham Brothers sing Hard Times Come Again No More.
Wage Peace.”

-- intro & sign-off portions of Peace, Salaam, Shalom by Emma’s Revolution and Peace Is by Fred Small
-- quotes from Chief Joseph, Peace Pilgrim, and President Eisenhower from The Way of Peace album
