Sunday
April 4th
| 3pm | ‘Breaking the Silence’ celebrates Martin Luther King’s prophetic Riverside speech - join a recreation of Martin Luther King’s radical, intersectional speech and discuss its relevance for organizing today. "On April 4, 1967, Dr. Martin Luther, Jr, spoke out powerfully against the Vietnam War. Exactly a year later, King was assassinated. The words of MLK’s 1967 historic sermon call us to urgent action - to eradicate racism, militarism, and poverty... The program ... will have simultaneous ASL and Spanish translation... A good way to prepare is to watch this powerful eight minute presentation by Michelle Alexander, author of "The New Jim Crow", at the 50th anniversary celebration in The Riverside Church of Dr. King's sermon. https://youtu.be/9dap8H8Z1YA  Share it with friends, colleagues and on social media." | free webinar at www.kingandbreakingsilence.org |

Monday
April 5
| Comment until May 20 | Community Roots Program - a garden and leadership training program for young adults ages 17-24, launching this summer at the Hunter Elementary School Garden in South Fairbanks!
